

BY LAWS
AND RULES OF
'ATENISI INSTITUTE INCORPORATED

‘ATENISI UNIVERSITY FACULTY CONDUCT

- 1 The institute will adjudicate allegations of misconduct. The senate will continue to adjudicate allegations of academic incompetence.
- 2 Members of the university community (administration, faculty, staff, students) are expected to lodge with the dean any complaint of misconduct of any fellow member within a week, but no later than one month, of the alleged incident. A complaint against the dean ought to be lodged with the institute director.
- 3 Sexual behaviour between a faculty member and a member of the university's student community is prohibited. For the purposes of these guidelines, a person is not considered a member of the university's student community until (s)he enrolls in the university, and will no longer be so considered if (s)he has received a terminal degree at the university or has not enrolled therein for one year.
- 4 As a member of the civil society forum, the institute respects the right of any accused to due process deliberation.
- 5 The senate may allow exceptions or ease some restrictions in special cases such as for married couples.
